Gayego made his three-year-old debut on January 20 with a win in the San Pedro Stakes at Santa Anita. He Then finished a close second to Georgie Boy in the Grade 2 San Felipe Stakes on March 18.

Gayego made his first start outside of California in the Grade 2 Arkansas Derby on April 12 at Oaklawn Park Race Track in Hot Springs, Arkansas It was also his first start on a conventional dirt surface. After contesting the early pace, Gayego took the lead around the final turn and then held off a late bid from Z Fortune to win by three-quarters of a length.

He participated in the 13th running of the Kentucky Derby on May 3 at Churchill Downs in Louisville, Kentucky. Even though he was one of the favourites at the 2008 Kentucky Derby, he finished 17th in the field. He was again among the betting favourites in the 2008 Preakness Stakes, but failed to finish in the money after taking the early lead, ending up 11th of 12.

On November 30, 2008, Gayego set a track record of 1:13:37 for 6½ furlongs at Hollywood Park Racetrack. In December he was sold to a trainer, A.C. Avila who shortly thereafter sold him to Godolphin Racing.
